NEW MAGAZINES

ST NICHOLAS for November opens the seventh volume of that magazine, with wider margins thicker paper, twenty eight additional pages, two front pieces a red-line title page for the volume sixty or more pictures and fourteen short stories Among the chief features of the number are a lively home story by Mary Mapes Dodge the editor, a story by Sarah Winter Kellogg of How some Dolls Broke the Law, an indescribable story The Gudra's Daughter, written by Frank R Stockton in his peculiarly funny style, a description of the Centant Boys of Thrace and their games and "go as you please" matches with three illustrations by the humorous artist F S Church, an ice rafting story of a boy who saved Mrs McGlinty's Pigs from an icy death, an account by a boy of how he hunted Jack rabbits in Kansas, a short story of the life of The Last Dauphin with a frontispiece portrait of the little prince engraved from a painting by Greene, and a thrilling historical story of the Black Prince and Philip the Bold, telling how when boys they fought like heroes at Crecy and Poitiers This last paper is illustrated with two striking full-page battle picture

A new serial story of boy pranks fun and out door life, written by William O Stoddard, author of Dab Kinzer and entitled Among the Lakes is begun with a lively installment, and there is an exciting account by Frank H Converse of a lad who was left Adrift on the Ocean An article by Olive Thorne illustrated with eleven pictures by Jessie Curtis, describes the Plaything's of all times and climes and a clearly written paper with carefully prepared diagrams tells how to make A Few Pretty Things in Lucy Work The Very Little Folk have four pages of large type and four pictures to themselves and the departments Jack in the Pulpit Letter Box and Riddle Box are crammed with funny items the boys and girls letters and riddles of all sorts.

The November SCRIBNER (of which 100,000 copies are printed) opens with two frontispiece portraits of Bayard Taylor, engraved by Cole from the large photograph by Gutekunst the other by Juengling from a replica of the bronze bass relief by the sculptor O Donovan, which was executed for Cornell University An interesting feature of this number is the installment of The Grandissimes Mr Cable's new story (and first novel) of Creole Life which succeeds Mrs Burnett's Haworth's and is to be one of the principal attractions of the magazine for the next twelve month Supplementing the part of The Grandissimes relating to the river is the paper on the Mississippi Jetties, by Mr E L Corthell the resident engineer at Port Lafa A timely paper on The Agricultural Distress in Great Britain is contributed by Mr P L Quinn of the New Jersey State Agricultural Association A strong contrast to this is presented by Mr Henry King's Picturesque Features of Kansas Farming Illustrated papers of an interest somewhat allied to these are on Rare Lawn Trees by Mr Samuel Parsons Jr of Flushing, L I, and on Success with Small Fruits by Rev T P Roe of Cornwall N Y

Nine other papers give variety to the number viz an account by Clarence Cook of Mr Morris Moore and his Old Masters with three engravings the first part of Mr E C Stedman's critique of Bayard Taylor's poetry and literary career involving the consideration of other American literature before the war, a curious study of How Animals get Home by Mr Ernest Ingersoll whose conclusion is against any special "homing instinct," a picturesque illustrated article by Mr W H Rideing on The French Quarter of New York, Extracts from the Journal of Henry J Raymond, edited by his son, a paper on the habitat and game qualities of the Michigan Grayling by the late Thaddeus Norris, the fourth installment of Mr Henry James's Confidence in which the scene changes to America and two clever pieces of romance—one a story of Americans in Europe by Mrs Elizabeth A Read entitled A Sigh and the other of the Schleswig Holstein war, by Mr H H Boyesen, entitled Ilka on the Hill top and introducing a Swiss yodeling song The poetry of the number is contributed by Austin Dobson Mary Mapes Dodge, Charles G D Roberts (a young poet of promise) William C Bonaparte Wyse (three sonnets on his cousin the Prince Imperial), Mary J Jacques, and Lizzie C Hall In his department of Topics of the Time, Dr Holland writes of Peter the Great—apropos of Mr Schuyler's history, to be published in September, and discusses The Nation's Doctors and Is Life Worth Living? The Home and Society department contains practical advice on Weaning the Baby by Catherine Owen, and a paper from Charles Barnard on Light, Heat and Power for the Householder, considering what has been done and what is likely to be done in these fields of domestic economy Culture and Progress includes a long review of Haeckel's Evolution of Man and other notices The World's Work treats of Important Advance in Metallurgy, Improved Builder's Platform, Novel Application of the Pendulum to Useful Work, etc. Brica-Brac, which is principally taken up with light satire, is especially bright.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE. The table of the ECLECTIC for November comprises twenty titles, forming a number of great variety and interest. The embellishment is a fine portrait on steel, of M. Guizot, the eminent French statesman and historian The list of articles is as follows History and Politics, by Professor Seeley, A Dialogue on Human Happiness, by W H Mallock, My Journal in the Holy Land, Part I, by Mrs Brassey, Two men of letters by George Saintsbury, Dulce est Despere a Latin student's song of the twelfth century White Wings A Yachting Romance, by William Black, Contemporary Literature—Readers The Problem of Sanity, Ancient Egypt, by Reginald Stuart Poole Venetian Sonnets by Professor Blackie Mademoiselle de Mersac, a novel, Weather Forecasting An Editor's Troubles, A Hungarian Episode—Zigeuner Music by the author of Flemish Interiors, Contrasts a poem, and a biographical sketch of M Guizot, to accompany the portrait The four Editorial Departments are filled with a great variety of interesting and instructive matter Published by E R Pelton, 25 Bond Street New York

WIDE AWAKE for November opens with a good story for the boys called Tid Telephone, by Kate W Hamilton and presently follows another fine article also for the boys, The Training School Ship Minnesota by Mrs Dickinson with twelve pictures drawn on shipboard by Miss L B Humphrey The boys too will be much interested in No XI of Mr Benjamin's articles on Our American Artists The funny four page poem entitled The Tragical History of Chang Fung Loo is printed for their especial delight Everybody will enjoy the story of The Wonderful Trio by Jane Howard also The Fun and Frolic Art School by Stanley Wood and the Stories a true story by Susan Archer Weiss The three serials, The Dogberry Bunch by Mrs Catherwood St Olives by Magnus Merriweather and Don Quixote by John Brownjohn all point toward conclusion There are several fine illustrated poems in this number Palmer Cox has a capital bit The Wolf and the Goats illustrated by a full page picture The attractive prospectus for 1880 will be found on the cover Ellis Farman Editor D Lothrop & Co Publishers, Boston Mass

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for November is equal to any of its predecessors in richness and variety of interest Later European Days the concluding paper of Rambles of Three by Margaret Bertha Wright is very amusing and capitally illustrated The fifth chapter of Dr Oswald's Summerland Sketches describes the Sierra Madre, and gives an entertaining glimpse of convent-life in the mountainous region of Mexico An article on Leadville also well illustrated will command attention after all that has been published in regard to the Carbonate City Where the Red Comes From is the title of a timely and interesting paper on dating breadstuffs Fox and Colonel Dr Alfred S Gibbs has a lively paper on Goethe's mother Catharine Elizabeth Goethe describes the organization and workings of the Secret Societies of Southern Italy and the problem they offer to Italian statesmanship The Bicycle and Riding It by J Wilcox indicates the inventions that have led to this new process of locomotion, and J Brander Matthews discusses Sheridan's Critic which will be played a hundred years ago and still keeps it place on the stage Among the stories in the number may be mentioned A Slight Misunderstanding and the first part of a very agreeably written little tale entitled Aimee which like Dusy Miller deals with the life of a young American girl abroad The Monthly Gossip treats of Fall Shopping Emile Zola and the Prince Imperial and other appropriate topics

PROPOSING TO "SWAP HORSES."

The N. Y. Herald, which a few days ago came out savagely against the Kelly bolt, has an editorial in Tuesday's issue in which it says Robinson's defeat "has become a foregone certainty," and suggests as a desperate strategy that he be withdrawn and Clarkson N. Potter put forward in his place for Governor. The Herald argues that Kelly would have to cease his opposition if Robinson took himself out of the way, and it argues that the Republicans might be beaten by such a final union of the Democratic forces. The World once suggested a similar change of candidates in the midst of an exciting campaign, but the experiment was thought too desperate. The Herald should remember the adage about the danger of "swapping horses while crossing a stream."

The Evening Post says there are only three objections to the Herald's programme and states them thus:

(1) Only two weeks of the canvass remain, and the time is rather short to make such a change. (2) The Democratic voters would be so confounded by the movement that many of them would not recover soon enough to go to the polls. (3) So shameless a surrender of principle would disgust the whole public and bury the compromise ticket beneath an overwhelming adverse majority.

A SENSIBLE OPINION.

Our contemporary last evening gave the following editorial indorsement of a political letter from New York:

In another column will be found a New York letter which gives some interesting facts, figures and surmises in relation to the approaching election in the Empire State. It consists of extracts from a private letter to the editor of the Commercial and is from a well known New Yorker possessing excellent chances for observation.

The letter was dated the 21st., signed L. W. S., and the most interesting of its statements was this:

"So far as I know there is a general opinion that Cornell will be elected. A few think Robinson will be elected."

INTER-CONVERTABLE FIGURES.

The N. Y. World's Arithmetic Man turns from the Ohio figures to more pleasing combinations on the year 1881 which he finds a mathematical curiosity. From left to right and from right to left it reads the same; 18 divided by 2 gives 9 as a quotient; 81 divided by 9 and 9 is the quotient. If 1881 is divided by 209, 9 is the quotient; if divided by 9, the quotient contains a 9; if multiplied by 9, the product contains two 9s. One and 8 are 9; 8 and 1 are 9. If the 18 be placed under the 81 and added, the sum is 99. If the figures be added thus, 1, 8, 8, 1, it will give 18. Reading from left to right is 18; and reading from right to left is 18, and 18 is two-months of 81. By adding, dividing and multiplying nineteen 9s are produced, being one 9 for each year required to complete the century.

"BULLDOZING, AND EVEN WORSE."

STATEMENTS OF A MISSISSIPPI DEMOCRAT.

[Wash. Cor. Boston Journal.]

A letter has been received here, written by Judge R. S. Hunt Hudson of Mississippi, who is represented as one of the ablest and worthiest men in that State. Judge Hudson's letter is in reply to an invitation from a committee of what is called "The independent or pacific Democratic party of Yazoo County," to become a candidate for the Legislature. Judge Hudson declines the invitation in a letter which admits all that the Republicans charge as to the situation in Mississippi. Judge Hudson deplores the exodus, and draws a strong picture of the effect upon the South of the emigration of its laborers. Tracing the cause, Judge Hudson says: "When is bulldozing and intimidation to end? When are we to have a free, unawed and unstrangled aspiration for office, a canvass and election? When is our mother's breast to be unstained with blood of the citizen and the graves cease to be filled with the dead on election years and occasions? When are the wails and cries of the beteft and widows and orphans to be unheard in party organizations and elections? Why the continued threats and intimidations against those who may see fit to organize the colored voters to vote any particular ticket, when there are no tickets but what are almost exclusively composed of old and tried white men of Yazoo county? They know and we know that there has been bulldozing, and even worse. They know and we know that the Bourbon army in time of profound peace is not permanently disorganized and disbanded, and can be brought to the front again upon roll call."

How completely Mr. George William Curtis has lost his head, appears in his attempt to justify his fight against the Republican ticket. The N. Y. Tribune now is arguing that no Republican can be working to defeat his party Mr. Curtis contorts by citing the Tribune's course in 1872. This is an admission of the similarity in cases, that is not advantageous to Mr. Curtis, as nobody thinks of justifying the Tribune's defection in 1872 on Republican grounds. That paper then turned squarely against the Republican party and did so, while Mr. Curtis is now trying to defeat the Republican party and claims that he is inspired by Republican principles. It by no means helps Mr. Curtis' case to remind the public that since 1872 he and the Tribune have changed places.

A N. Y. Herald report of a political meeting at Elmira Monday evening says that Sunset Cox "made one of his facetious addresses, dwelling particularly on Tilden's cipher despatches and causing intense merriment by his reading of these extraordinary concoctions and the translations with which they were supplemented." Only think of Sunset Cox twitting Tilden about the ciphers! That is almost as ungrateful as the zeal with which Tilden jumped on his old friend Tweed after the "Boss" was vanquished and powerless.

"It is a curious fact in the Ohio election," says the New York Times, "that while the Democrats made special efforts to secure the Legislature, in order to save Mr. Thurman's seat, and in order to save, also, their own majority in the Senate against possible reverses, the result on the Legislative ticket is even more decided than on the State ticket."

The Ohio idea is dead, we are told, and we profoundly trust that this gratifying assurance, which has received such general indorsement, rests upon a substantial fact. —Boston Post.

While the "Ohio idea" was the inspiration of a coalition campaign in this State, the Post trusted it more politely.

DEATH OF EX-MAYOR BUTLER, OF PORTLAND. Ex-Mayor Moses M. Butler of Portland, who was stricken with paralysis in the court room last week, died Tuesday evening at the age of 55. Mr. Butler was born in Sanford, graduated at Bowdoin in 1845, and entered into law practice in Portland in 1847. He was subsequently a law partner of Senator Fessenden, and afterwards with the Senator's sons, but since 1875 had been in partnership with Charles F. Libby, Esq., late County Attorney. Mr. Butler was County Attorney of Cumberland from 1859 to 1865, Mayor of Portland in 1877-79, Representative to the Legislature in 1859, and Representative elect at the time of his decease. His death will create a vacancy in the delegation to the House from Portland, and necessitate a special election.

The soft-money "dalliance" having proved so unprofitable, the Democrats are now talking about trying to get up an issue over the tariff. The Solid South business will have to be attended to first.

John Russell Young, of the New York Herald, who accompanied General Grant throughout his foreign travels, recently said to an interviewer: "I observe that all of General Grant's friends—friends, I mean, whose interest in him springs neither from a political nor a military standpoint, but from a merely personal regard—do not look with enthusiasm upon any prospects of his returning to political life."

The New York Tribune suggested that John Quincy Adams, Democratic candidate for Governor in Massachusetts, is like the sailor who, dropped into a church just as the minister solemnly inquired, "Who will be the goats?" interrupted the succeeding pause by the remark that he was willing to act as goat rather than have the show stopped.

Congressman William D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, the most radical inflationist of Republican antecedents, has recently returned from Europe to find the rag baby humbug exploded, and a few evenings ago he took part in a Republican meeting.

"Private Dalzell" writes the Boston Traveller that General Garfield is to be the next Senator from Ohio.

Republicans should above all things desire the nomination of Samuel J. Tilden next year, and if they can do anything in a legitimate way to bring it about it would be an excellent stroke of policy.—Hartford Post.

It is the opinion of the Atlanta Constitution that the time will come when the colored people of the South will regard slavery as a benefaction and a boon rather than a curse. A steady course of bulldozing and shooting is expected to produce that result.

The Boston Herald prints a despatch from Congressman A. G. McCook, of New York, saying: "Cornell's election, in my judgment, is absolutely certain, as the disaffected Republicans are too few to affect the result. The Legislature will be Republican in both branches, and the Senate, which holds over, will participate in the election of a United States Senator to succeed Mr. Kernan. New York can be relied upon to do as well as Ohio." Congressman S. B. Chittenden, of Brooklyn, who has been classed as an Independent Republican, telegraphs: "The Curtis party weakens, viewing the position of the President and Cabinet. I think Kelly's vote will disappoint his friends, and that Cornell's election is sure, with a probable majority over all."

The Republicans have thirty-one majority on joint ballot in the Ohio Legislature. Nothing very "doubtful" about that.

The Cincinnati Enquirer is telling a good deal of truth since election. It says:

As we look over and into the philosophy of the late election in Ohio, we cannot fail to see a few facts in it that are wholly outside of it. The Chisolm killings and the Dixon killings and the Yazoo plans are too good electioneering arguments for Republicans to be furnished by any but the enemy. Democrats cannot afford to furnish them.

Revenue Agent Latham, reporting upon internal revenue affairs in the second Alabama collection district, under date of 16th inst., says:

"For the last two or three months Government witnesses have been whipped in two cases unmercifully. One of the latter was finally hung, but cut down before life was extinct, and but a few days since, as I am informed and believe, another was shot and killed. The officers have met with some armed resistance, but none of them were in any way personally hurt. With the aid of the strong arm of the Government and the active co-operation of the Marshal and Collector's forces, a hope is entertained that finally we may be able to secure an enforcement of the laws."

Prof. J. W. Churchill, Andover, Mass.

SELECT READINGS AND RECITATIONS.

Prof. C. could have filled Norombega the very next night after his readings in this course last December. He reads regularly in the annual Bay State course, Boston.

"There were many tears shed as Prof. Churchill read these selections. His humorous pieces provoked the audience to laughter and applause, so that at times he was obliged to pause until quiet had been restored. It is sufficient to state that the readings last evening added another laurel to the brow of one who is acknowledged to stand at the head of his profession."—Boston Traveller.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those who constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, whilst Life itself is directly dependant upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, re-establishing the one and toning up the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, weary, overtax or irregular habits, Bronchitis, Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name, no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Price $1.50 per Bottle, six for $7.50.

The receipts of the Maine Central Railroad for the month of September were $15 000 larger than during the corresponding period of last year $8 000 of this increase comes from freight and the balance from the passenger traffic

THE DANCE This evening the first dance of the season will take place at Music Hall As has already been announced in these columns the matter is in the hands of competent gentlemen and a very pleasant party will undoubtedly participate in the dance Music will be furnished by Andrews' full orchestra and every effort will be made to make the occasion a pleasant success

FIRE IN GLENBURN The house, barn, shed and outbuildings, owned and occupied by William Grover, in Glenburn, were totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday, together with twenty-two tons of hay contained therein The fire is supposed to have been set by the children playing with matches in the barnyard. There was no insurance on the building or contents, and the loss falls heavily upon Mr. Grover, who is a poor man.

CHURCH DEDICATION The new Catholic church in Hallowell is now in complete condition, the work of frescoing having very recently been finished under the supervision of Schumacher The dedication is to take place next Sunday. Bishop Healy, of Portland, is to deliver the dedicatory sermon. Rev. D. W. Murphy, the pastor, will be assisted by his two brothers, Rev J W. Murphy, of Bangor, and Rev S W Murphy, of Portland. Evening services will be held in the church in Hallowell, which has been newly frescoed and enlarged.

LOST HER MONEY. Last night about eleven o'clock Officer Nickerson came across a strange young woman on the street, and on questioning her learned that she belonged in Olamon. She said that she came down to the city for the purpose of making some purchases and had just fifteen dollars in her wallet, but that she lost it some where between the depot and the Franklin House. The wallet was in an outside pocket and she thinks she pulled it out with her pocket handkerchief. There was also a gold ring in the wallet. The woman was entirely unacquainted in the city and Mr. Nickerson took her up to the station house, and gave her quite comfortable quarters for the night in the shelter room.

GOOD TEMPLARS AT KENDUSKEAG. A lodge of Good Templars was instituted at Kenduskeag last Tuesday evening by Deputy M. J. Dow, with the following officers. W C T, Frank Harvey; W. V. T., Nellie Leavitt; W. Sec'y., J. F. Cole; W. A. S., Mira Jenkins, W. F. S., Mira Hawes, W. T., Vernon Jenkins; W. C., W. S. Nason, W. M., Charles North; W. D. M., Hannah North; W. I. G., Ella Page; W. O. G., Eldridge Clement, W. H. S., Nellie Harvey; W. R. H. S., Lionel Cole, P. W. C. T., E. M. Nason, L. D., Wm. Spratt. It is to be called "Rock" Lodge and meets Tuesday evenings.

THE GAS IN THE BRIDGE We learn from the toll bridge officials that no one has been fooling with the gas in the bridge It seems that they are required by law to burn the gas after o'clock, but instead of extinguishing altogether they allow it to burn dimly all night At ten o'clock one of the employes adjusts the gas for the night and he has to turn it off inside the house, as is unable to see how dark he is making it until he steps out for that purpose, and then he is sometimes obliged to return and let on more gas, which accounts for the sudden change from darkness to light mentioned yesterday

TROUBLE AMONG SCHOOL CHILDREN We learn that there is a strong feeling between the American and Irish boys attending the Grammar school on Union street which amounts, at times to almost a riot Yesterday morning they had some words which soon resulted in a free fight and rocks were flying promiscuously for a few minutes. They chased each other down to High street and it required the united efforts of Mr. Pease, one of the policemen and the janitor to get them back to the school house The ringleaders will probably be made an example of

COMPLIMENT TO A BANGOR BOY The New Haven Register has a very complimentary notice of the last number of the Yale College Record and say that its success is "due more than to anything else to the energy and shrewd business management of its financial editor Mr W E Decrow of the class of 1880 Mr Decrow has built up the Record to a remarkable manner, assisted by its able corps of editors" "It is a matter of congratulation two," says the Register, "that the ball club has Mr Decrow as its treasurer There need be no fears that its finance will not be managed in a manner creditable alike to the treasurer and the college"

THE WORK RE-BUILDING. The Houlton Pioneer says Work on the buildings now in process of construction is progressing rapidly with the large number of carpenters employed Mr Woodbury's fine dwelling is being plastered, the carpenter work on which has been done under the superintendence of Mr B F Young of Bangor, a first class mechanic A H Fogg & Co's block of stores is being built under the direction of F A Young who appears to thoroughly understand his business, and is pushing the work as rapidly as possible with the crew employed They intend to have the stores ready for occupancy before cold weather, Mr Kennedy's building is finished and occupied by himself as a merchant tailor and Mrs Nathan Patchel Churchill, harness maker

FORTNIGHTLY LECTURES. The second series of Fortnightly Lectures will open in Norombega Hall one week from next Tuesday evening, with an entertainment by Prof Churchill The following is taken from the Cincinnati Gazette "Prof Churchill is entirely natural and sensible in all his ways In his readings he puts on no airs, assumes no clock of mystery, but speaks in a natural, easy tone—varied naturally as an intelligent reading demands When he reads a serious poem, such as "Robert, of Sicily" he reveals its meaning in a manner to appeal to an intelligent taste, and not to repel by suggesting a strained meaning When he reads a pathetic story such as "The Chief Engineer's Story," his attack upon his hearers' heartstrings is a delicate touch, not a rough demand In the light reading he is always natural and perfectly like the character he assumes"

FOR THE LADIES The most conspicuous novelties of the season are the rich hand embroidered satins and velvets used to form the draperies, or a part of the drapery upon trained evening and reception dresses Some of these are imported in the piece, some in lengths of four yard or less the price of these cut lengths varying from seventy five dollars to one hundred and seventy five dollars each A novelty is the feather bonnet composed wholly of small feathers, laid one over another, to form a smooth surface, the edge of the brim usually showing an inch or two of satin or velvet, which is embroidered with amber or dark iridescent beads, which match the shading of the feathers A bird of different plumage, and a small plume of feathers harmonizing with a general effect, completes the garnishing except the strings, which are very wide and composed of rich ribbon or double satin, with ends of plaited lace

ADMIRAL AIDEN The Portland Press says The late Rear Admiral Alden it will be remembered, was a Portland boy, and our citizens will recall the funeral obsequies with which he was buried in February 1877, in this city His remains were interred in Eastern Cemetery We understand that a codicil in his will left the sum of $5000 for the purpose of purchasing a fitting tomb or mausoleum to properly mark his last resting place. The codicil, we understand, was so worded that, legally, a statute of the late Admiral could be substituted for a mausoleum The trustees last week invited Mr Thomas Ball, the celebrated sculptor, to visit Portland and confer with them on this subject We understand that he received a commission to execute a statute, and it is reported that when completed, it will be erected either in Lincoln Park or in some central or prominent locality. If the old City Hall were removed it would prove a fitting ornament to Market Square

SONS OF TEMPERANCE The thirty-fifth annual session of the Grand Division Sons of Temperance of Maine met in Temperance Hall last evening. The meeting was called to order by the Grand Scribe and on motion of Bro Joshua Nye, of Augusta, it was voted that the session of the Grand Division adjourn to nine o'clock Thursday morning and that Bangor Division open in regular order, which motion was carried. Among those present from the Grand Division were Hon J. Nye, of Augusta, E. C. Low and L T. Boothby of Waterville, Hon. Henry Tallman of Bath, Hon. J. Nash, of Gardiner, and others. Seven Past Grand Worthy Patriarchs were present at the opening. The returns show one hundred and sixty delegates appointed. Refreshments were served by the ladies of Bangor Division and one hundred ladies and gentlemen were seated around the tables. The hall was appropriately trimmed for the occasion. Remarks interspersed with singing occupied the remainder of the evening, after which the Division closed. The session holds through to-day and promises to be interesting.

THE RAILROAD PARTY—QUICK TIME. The special train with the railroad officials left this city yesterday morning at a few minutes past seven o'clock in charge of the popular conductor, Mr. L W Pollister. In addition to the gentlemen named in yesterday's issue the party consisted of Prof S J. Young, of Brunswick, W. H. Smith and Sprague Adams, Esqs., of this city. J. F. Leavitt, Esq, General Ticket Agent of the E & N A Railway Company, also accompanied the party as far as Lincoln The train made some very quick time, being just two hours and forty minutes going from this city to Vanceboro The run from Costigan to Greenbush a distance of five miles, was made in just five minutes. Mr Frank Laughton was the engineer President Gibson of the New Brunswick Railway was to meet them at Woodstock and take them over his road The N B R, is of a 3 feet 6 in. gauge, was chartered in 1870 and has 190 miles of completed road, including branches It has a land grant of 10 000 acres per mile of road For the year ending June 30, 1878, it moved 52,340 tons of freight and for the same time its total gross earnings were $122 300 29 Its net earnings for the same period were $27,111 06.

A MOUNT DESERT VETERAN GONE

Death of Tobias Roberts, Esq., of Bar Harbor.

A despatch received yesterday forenoon by Manager Bliss of the Western Union, announced the death of Tobias Roberts Esq, at his home in Bar Harbor, at 8 A M Mr Roberts had been failing in health for a year or two past, but his final and fatal illness was comparatively brief as he had quite recently been in this city, although then quite feeble

The death of Mr Roberts will be learned with sorrow by a very large number of acquaintances and friends, not only in this State, but among the travelling public in all parts of the country For many years he has been the most prominent citizen of Bar Harbor as well as one of the largest property holders, and his long connection with the hotel business rendered his name and self familiar to those who have frequented that delightful summer resort

Mr Roberts was the landlord of the old "Agamont" when it was the only public house at the harbor, and when the visitors there comprised a few people from this city and vicinity His house continued the most prominent, until he retired from the business some years ago and in all the wonderful growth of the place, Uncle Tobias," although no longer engaged in the more active pursuits was regarded as one of the institutions of the place and held in high esteem by all.

By the sale of hotel and wharf interests he acquired quite a comfortable property, and for some years has been engaged in various liberal enterprises for the benefit of the place He recently built and presented to the town a neat schoolhouse with a hall for public meetings, and for the use of the Woman's Society in the winter

Two of his sons are engaged in the hotel business at Bar Harbor Tobias L, being proprietor of the 'Rockaway' and Martin of the 'Newport House' A daughter is the wife of Capt. Andrew Rodick also a hotel keeper He also leaves a widow

Mr Roberts took a practical interest in the development of Bar Harbor as a pleasure resort and co-operated with the late Alfred Vezie Esq in establishing the telegraph line to that place Mr Robert being at the time of his death President of the Bar Harbor & Mt Desert Telegraph Co

We believe that Mr Robert was about 70 years of age He was quite a notable local character in his day had been on familiar terms with many distinguished people, and will be sincerely mourned by hundreds who remember the quiet humor and ever good nature of the veteran landlord who has passed away

MARINE DISASTER

Loss of the Schooner Mountain Laurel

Capt W I Remick arrived in this city last evening from Bath and reports the loss of his vessel 'Mountain Laurel'

This schooner cleared from this port on the fourteenth, loaded with lumber by James Walker & Co and bound for Bridgeport She proceeded all right until about eight o'clock Sunday night, when she sprung a leak about thirty five miles south of Segmo A fresh breeze was blowing at the time and all the sails were furled except the jib but as the leak gained rapidly she filled at half past nine and capsized making it necessary for the crew to abandon her leaving everything with the exception of the clothes they had on

They remained in the boat until eleven o clock Monday morning when they were picked up by the schooner Persis L Smith, Capt J Ryder bound for Augusta, and were landed at Bath Captain Remick speaks in the highest terms of the courteous treatment they received while on board of Capt Ryder's vessel

The Mountain Laurel was owned by Dyer P Jordan, L D Remick and the heirs of Jonathan Langley, all of Bath worth The vessel was probably uninsured.

Kate Claxton

Announcement is made elsewhere of the second appearance in this city of the favorite actress Miss Kate Claxton She will appear in Norombega Hall next Tuesday evening, in Charles Reade's great drama, written especially for her, entitled "The Double Marriage" C A Stevenson and a strong dramatic company will furnish the support The following notice of the piece is taken form the Louisville Courier Journal

The production of "A Double Marriage" at Macauley's last night was attended with pronounced success The audience was most enthusiastic in its commendations throughout the evening The play was written by Charles Reade, and is owned solely by Miss Claxton It is a drama of the liveliest interest. The exigencies of the play are such as to call forth the emotional qualities of Miss Claxton's peculiar dramatic power Miss Claxton is essentially an emotional actress, and is therefore especially adapted to meet in this respect, the demands of the social drama of the day. Endowed by nature with personal charms that can scarcely fail to achieve for her the immediate favor of her audience, and possessed of a manner and bearing so thoroughly graceful and winsome, she is most happily equipped for her work She is, moreover, full of that subtle something, which we call magnetism for want of a better word, and which reaches and controls the hearts of the assemblage in its own inexplicable way. Then, again, she never seems to be acting She is ever natural and realistic. Her art disguises itself in the true colors of actual life. She is rarely declamatory. Passion is, with her, subdued in its expression. We are conscious of its intensity, but are not startled by clamorings or frantic outbursting. Her methods are not conventional. She depends upon impulse rather than upon prescribed forms and rules. The result is her impersonations are refreshing and stamp themselves upon the memory ineffaceably. As Josephine, last night, she was thoroughly in her element. As the wife, innocently wedded to one more husband than the law allows, and tossed about in the tempest of Agony and despair, living in the shadows with the sunlight shut out from her life, she held undisputed sway over her audience. The baby used in the third act fairly captured the audience, the infant being complimented with a special recall. Miss Claxton was summoned before the curtain after each act, and congratulated in the warmest fashion The piece is very prettily mounted, the dressing being notably good

State Reform School

Monday evening was pleasantly enjoyed at the State Reform School, it being the occasion of the Rev Mr Pember's farewell address to the boys During the past two years the Reverend gentleman has resided in Stroudwater he has cheerfully and satisfactorily to both trustees and superintendents, performed the duties of chaplain every other Sabbath and also has contributed largely to the enjoyment of the boys during the long winter evenings by delivering weekly lectures After Rev Mr Pember's address and the customary good byes were exchanged, the superintendent, Col Parker stepped forward and in a few well chosen remarks presented the Reverend gentleman in behalf of the officers with a beautiful gold headed cane, inscribed

REV E PEMBER
Presented by the officers of the Maine
State Reform School

He was taken entirely by surprise, but showed his appreciation of their gift in a few appropriate remarks The exercises in the chapel closed with a few well chosen remarks by Albion Little, Esq, Chairman of the Board of Trustees after which the boys retired to the dormatory for the night and the officers and the invited guests repaired to the dining hall where they found an oyster supper in waiting after which the remainder of the evening was passed socially The Rev Mr Pember and wife will go to their new field of labor in the eastern part of Maine with the best wishes of both officers and inmates of the institution

NEW PUBLICATIONS

FIGS AND THISTLES A Western Story by Albion W Tourgee Published by Fords Howard & Hulbert New York The scene largely laid in the Western Reserve of Ohio, does not circumscribe the action or the interest of this fresh and delightful romance of real life It is a representative of "American Novels" because it follows the fortunes of a barefooted orphan boy through the exciting scenes of the past thirty years—his boyhood, youth love, successes in law in the war, in Congress and through the peculiar trials and temptations of a political career Crowded with incident, populous with strong characters simple but ingenious in plot rich with the humor of the West, and from beginning to end alive with absorbing interest this book cannot fail to sustain and extend the author's name is a popular writer of fiction For sale at Bugbee

BANGOR, Oct 15, 1879.
DR JOSIAH BRIGGS—Dear Sir—I think it is no more than justice to you and a duty to the afflicted public to write a few lines in relation to your Medicated Vapor I read your advertisement and called to see you with my son, who was very severely afflicted with Catarrh, which had become chronic and exceedingly troublesome. I said to you I had no money to throw away but was willing to pay for anything that had merit and a prospect of a cure Being pleased with your candid manner in explaining your method of treatment, giving the names of the vegetable extracts used for Medicating, also the composition of your other specifics, which I know possess curative properties. The prescriptions you furnish to your patients free are also good and must be of great value to Consumptives and those troubled with Bronchial affections as well as for general debility I procured your Inhaler Medicating fluid and Catarrh specifics My son has been using them about three weeks and finds them agreeable and beneficial He will continue them as directed We have no doubt of a speedy and radical cure Please accept thanks for the benefit he derived from your valuable specifics

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to streets and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the evidence of their route

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office

Holding a the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7½ to 8½ P M Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A M

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office

ENVELOPES

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelope so furnished by the Post Office Department. (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus authorized if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge

Fine note envelopes of above furnished at $3 25 per thousand

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes

cannot be used to prepay postage The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars

Scarped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at the office

SCRIBNERS MONTHLY

CONDUCTED BY J. G. HOLLAND.

The Handsomest Illustrated Magazine in the World.

The American edition of this periodical is now

MORE THAN 70,000 MONTHLY,

And it has a larger circulation in England than any other American magazine. Every number contains about one hundred and fifty pages, and from fifty to seventy-five original wood cut illustrations.

Announcements for 1878--9.

Among the attractions for the coming year are the following

"HAWORTH'S," a serial novel, by Mrs Frances Hodgson Burnett, author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's" The scene of Mrs Burnett's new novel is laid in Lancashire, the hero is a young inventor of American birth. "Haworth's" is the longest story Mrs Burnett has yet written It will run through twelve numbers of the Monthly, beginning with November, 1878, and will be profusely illustrated.

FALCONBERG, a serial novel, by H H. Boyesen, author of "Gunnar," "The Man who Lost His Name," &c. In this romance, the author graphically describes the peculiarities of Norse immigrant life in a Western Settlement

A STORY OF NEW ORLEANS, by George W Cable, to be begun on the conclusion of "Falconberg" This story will exhibit the state of society in Creole Louisiana about the years 1803-4-5, the time of the Cession, and a period featuring more markedly likeness to the present Reconstruction period

PORTRAITS OF AMERICAN POETS This series (begun in August with the portrait of Bryant) will be continued that of Longfellow appearing in November These portraits are drawn from life by Wyatt Eaton and engraved by T Cole They will be printed separately on tinted paper, for framing, free of four different numbers. Illustrated sketches of the lives of the poets will accompany these portraits

STUDIES IN THE SIERRAS.—A series of papers (mostly illustrated) by John Muir, the California naturalist. The most graphic and picturesque and, at the same time, exact and trustworthy studies of "The California Alps" that have yet been made. The series will sketch the Californian Passes, Lakes, Wind blow us and Forests

A NEW VIEW OF BRAZIL Mr Herbert H Smith, of Cornell University, a companion of the late Prof Hartt, is now in Brazil with Mr J W Chamberlain (the artist who accompanied Mr Edward King in his tour through the "Great South"), preparing for SCRIBNER a series of papers on the present population, religion, climate and resources of the great empire of South America

THE "JOHNNY REB" PAPERS, by an "ex Confederate" soldier, will be among the raciest contributions to Scribner during the coming year They are written and illustrated by MAJ ALDEN Redwood, of Baltimore The first of the series, "Johnny Reb at Play," appears in the November number

THE LEADING EUROPEAN UNIVERSITIES We are now having prepared, for SCRIBNER, articles on the leading Universities of Europe They will be written by an American College Professor Mr H H Boyesen, of Cornell (author of "Falconberg," etc.,) and will include sketches of the leading men in each of the most important Universities of Great Britain and the Continent.

Among the additional series of papers to appear may be mentioned those on HOW SHALL WE SPELL (two papers by Prof Lounsbury); THE NEW SOUTH; LAWN PLANTING FOR SMALL PLACES (by Samuel Parsons, of Flushing); CANADA OF TO DAY; AN AMERICAN ART AND ARTISTS; AMERICAN ARCHÆOLOGY; MODERN INVENTORS, also, Papers of Travel, History, Biography, Science, Studies in Literature, Political and Social Science, Stories, Poems, Topics of the Time" by Dr J G Holland, record of New Inventions and Mechanical Improvements Papers on Education, Organization, etc., Book Reviews, fresh bits of Wit and Humor, etc., etc., etc.

Terms, $4 a Year in advance;

35 cents a Number.

Subscriptions received by the publishers of the paper, as by all booksellers and postmasters Persons wishing to subscribe direct with the publishers, should write name, Post-office, County, and State, in full, and send with remittance (a check, P O Money Order, or registered letter to

ST. NICHOLAS,

Scribner's Illustrated Magazine

FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

AN IDEAL CHILDREN'S MAGAZINE.

Messrs SCRIBNER & Co., in 1873, began the publication of ST NICHOLAS, an illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, with Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge as editor. Five years have passed since the first number was issued, and the magazine has won the highest position. It has a monthly circulation of

OVER 50,000 COPIES.

It is published simultaneously in London and New York, and the transatlantic recognition is almost as general and hearty as the American Although the progress of the magazine has been a steady advance, it has not reached its ultimate ideas of fact, because her ideal continually out runs it, and the magazine is swiftly follows after To help ST NICHOLAS speeds

Alone in the World of Books:

The New York Tribune has said of it "St Nicholas has fairly reached a higher platform, and commands for its service wider resources in art and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries" The Boston Advertiser says "There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal the choice production of Scribner's press"

Good Things for 1878--9.

The arrangements for literary and art contributions for the new volume—the sixth—are complete, and bring to the already high standard as well as from promising new ones Mr Frank R Stockton's new serial story for boys,

"A JOLLY FELLOWSHIP," will run through the twelve monthly parts,—beginning with the number for November, 1878, the first of the volume—and will be illustrated by James E Kelly The story is one of travel and adventure in Florida and the Bahamas For the girls, a continued tale,

"Half a Dozen Housekeepers,"

By Katherine D Smith, with illustrations by Fred Dielman, begins in the same number, and a fresh serial by Susan Coolidge, entitled "Eye bright," with plenty of pictures, will be commenced early in the volume There will also be a continued fairy tale called

"Rumpty Dudget's Tower,"

Written by Julian Hawthorne, and illustrated by Alfred Fredericks About the other familiar features of St. Nicholas, the editor preserves a good humored silence, content, perhaps, to let her live volume sufficiently plead, properly concerning the sixth, in respect to short stories, pictures, poems, humor, instructive sketches, and the lure and lore of "Jack in the Pulpit" the "Very Little Folks" department, and the "Letter box," and "Riddlebox"

Terms $3 00 a year, 25 cents a Number

Subscriptions received by the Publisher of this Paper, and by all Booksellers and postmasters Persons wishing to subscribe direct with the publishers should write name Post-office, County and State, in full, and send with remittance in check, P O money order, or registered letter to
